

Decision Tree – Charging Administrative Expenses to Sponsored Projects

The following decision tree illustrates how a PI can make a well-informed decision related to determining the allowability and classification of an administrative/clerical cost. This decision tree may also be used by department administrators as they assist PIs in making well-informed decisions.

